A RANGE WITH VISIBLE RESULTS

From the age of 50, the skin undergoes biological changes linked to aging and the environment. Cell renewal slows down and aging signs appear. Wrinkles become deeper, dark spots arise, and in addition a loss of radiance. In order to prevent and slow down skin aging, mature skin needs specific care.

Centella Asiatica vegetal stem cells are an exceptional active ingredient for your beauty.

Traditionally used in ayurvedic medicine for its numerous virtues, Centella Asiatica is also used in cosmetics for its exceptional anti-aging properties. It boosts collagen synthesis and enhances skin elasticity. Precious to our organism, stem cells have an extraordinary regenerative power. Therefore, they are your best cosmetic ally in order to preserve your skin's youth. The synergistic use of Centella Asiatica extract and stem cells is the secret of this range which has remarkable results: firmer skin, smoother wrinkles and luminous complexion.

THE ROIG LABORATORIES Designers and Manufacturers since 1972

Since 1972, we innovate and revolutionise the traditional cosmetic universe by combining with passion the know-how of herbalists of yesteryear and green biotechnologies, respectful of the great laws of Nature.

Active in an eco-responsible approach with a permanent passion for preserving the environment, we honour our values in Nature and Human respect.

THE CENTELLA BRAND Centella Asiatica Expert

Created at the same time as our laboratories in 1972, Centella was born from a double innovation. The pioneer brand in Europe to use Centella Asiatica in cosmetics, it associates the extraordinary powers of essential oils in natural formulas. Take a bath of nature with our biological products, made from specifically targeted and efficient formulas, and with vegetal sensoriality.
